Mr. Tobin Sells—Our Swedish People —Going to California—What Home Folks Are Doing.

It is announced that Mr. Tobin who has been keeping a saloon at Avon Park, intends soon to go out of business. The good will of the place has been sold to Mr. Lynch of Bridgeport.

There is a pleasant rumor in town that when Father O'Connor can provide for his congregation elsewhere the Swedish people would like to purchase St. James' church. The situation is a central one for these people and the location all that could be desired.

Mrs. William Bradley is visiting Mrs.
Dr. Russell at Woodbridge Farm.

Mr. LeDuc of King street, is home suffering from a fractured kneecap.

Recent arrivals at the Gerry house include Mr. and Mrs. Harley of Brooklyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Patterson of Freeport, L. I.

James Sexton says he never saw a city so beautiful as Los Angeles, and he is making arrangements to take his family there for the coming winter. If all like the place, he will probably remain permanently. One can work there 12 months and the other he can command a much higher salary than in the east. He is contemplating selling his place in Stratford avenue, and George A. Porter thinks of buying. If Mr. Porter should do so, he would build a house for rent between the Sexton residence and that of Mr. Allen, and another on the eastern side of the Sexton house.

A handsome hedge is to be run between the lot belonging to the Catholic rectory and the land of Dr. Cogwell. It will extend from Main street to the rear of the lot.

Two masses at St. James' church on Sunday, one at 8:30 and the other at 10:30. The Sunday school is held between the two masses.

Another lot on Warwick avenue has just been sold by a well known real estate dealer. The name of the purchaser is withheld for the present.

A bicycle belonging to the town clerk having recently been stolen, he has purchased a new one and locks it up when not in use.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Gary is again at work for the Electric Cable Co.

Yesterday Mrs. Eliza Summons gave a lawn party for the First Baptist church.

Messrs. Charles Mills, Frederick Wilcoxson and Henry Meachen had charge of the Odd Fellows' outing at Savin Rock. An enjoyable time was passed and everything went off nicely.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Isaac Hull is reported ill with cerebri spinal meningitis.

There is a rumor that Frank Patterson contemplates building a house in the neighborhood of St. James' church.
Monday afternoon the Bridge Whist Club met with Mrs. Charles Sullivan.

The auxiliaries connected with Christ church, both boys and girls, will give an exhibit of their work and hold a cake sale Wednesday next, from 3 to 4 p. m.

The long talked of and much anticipated talkfest at the Housatonic Grange will take place tomorrow evening at the hall in Main street.

Miss Edith Judson of Brooklyn, is in town for health and recreation.

Miss Sadie Blaney is visiting in Massachusetts.

Mrs. David Somers is visiting in New Jersey.

Recent guests at Christ church rectory include Miss Meeker and Mrs.
Voss.

People with chronic bronchitis, asthma and lung trouble, will find great relief and comfort in Foley's Honey and Tar, and can avoid suffering by commencing to take it at once. F. B.

FAIRFIELD

Coming Agricultural Fair — The Judges in Charge—Wiring for Electricity—A Rush of Work.

The time draws near for holding the ninth annual agricultural fair of the Greenfield Country Club. This will take place on the 14th, 15th and 16th of September on the ample grounds of the club at Greenfield Hill. As usual Mr. Nellis H. Sherwood of Southport is the president, and the vice presidents are Simon C. Bradley and Miss Georgia A. Banks. This year there is a new secretary, Mr. A. C. Acker of Bridgeport, and a new treasurer, Mr.
Eli Wakeman of Westport. Besides those already named the following act as directors: W. O. Burr, J. N. Hutchinson, W. H. Wilson, W. O. J. M.
Wilson, Mrs. D. E. Adams, C. H. Bradley, C. H. Bradley, and C. Gray. A number of well known ladies and gentlemen of the town will act as superintendents of the various classes of exhibits, etc. Mrs. William Hull of Greenfield Hill will have charge of the children's exhibits; Miss Laura Dowd of the same place of the fine arts; Mrs. C. S. Bradley, of the ladies' industrial department; Mrs. W. H. Wilson, of bread, cake and pies; Mrs. A.
C. Bulkeley, of canned fruits; Mrs.
Helen Jennings of floriculture; Mrs.
W. S. Merwin, of Southport, of fruits; Mr. H. L. Wakeman, of vegetables; Mr. W. E. Hull of Southport, of grain; Mr. D. B. Adams, of Southport, of agricultural and mechanical implements; Mr. W. O. Burr, of poultry; Mr. W. E. Hull, of per stock; Mr.
Eli Wakeman, of Westport, of cat-tles and swine; Mr. George Sherwood, of Westport, of draft working, and fat cattle; Mr. Simon C. Bradley, of homes and equippages; Mr. H.
Bradley, of dogs; and Mrs. Charles Gray will look after miscellaneous exhibits. Mr. F. L. Mills is to be the judge of decorative vehicles, automobiles and bicycles, while the booth and stands will be in charge of Mr.
Charles Gray of Greenfield Hill. There is to be a band concert every day of the fair. Applications for space should be made not later than the 7th of September. There is to be a post office and telephone station on the grounds. The premium list has been issued and makes a pamphlet of 72 pages.

Mrs. Maria H. Hinckley of Broad street, and her two daughters, have gone on their annual vacation to the hills of New Hampshire.

Both St. Thomas' church and the rectory of the residence of Father Coleman, are now being wired for electric lights.

A large manufacturer of ladies' underwear, from Coventry, England, Mr.
Cash, was recently in town and inspected the Eastern Underwear plant in town. He was pleased with all he saw. He remained in this country but four days. He expressed astonishment at the growth and prosperity of New York.

Yesterday Mr. Sartain, manager of the Eastern Underwear plant, said his establishment has got all it can possibly do until next February.

Mrs. N. E. Hill, of Greenfield Hill, hopes soon to visit her son who is preaching in Minnesota.

Allison Hull is the new clerk at the Banks store.

Allen T. and George S. Jennings have recently made a trip to New Haven in their new touring car.

Many wagon loads of tomatoes are now going to market from local farms.

Last night Mrs. Simon C. Bradley had for guests members of the Greenfield Country Club.

Mr. E. F. Bulkeley will have for guests the rest of this summer, Dr.
Gorham and family of New York.

$20 Suits Made to Order for $12

And Extra $4 Trousers FREE

You can safely take this example as a criterion of the general price slash on all our woolens. You'll not get this opportunity for another year, because only every August do we make room quickly for our fall woolens, by cutting our prices almost in half; of course, as soon as the fall woolens come in prices again jump to normal. But just now $12 will do the work of $20 and please remember extra

$4 Trousers FREE

And we won't attempt to dodge our blinding guarantee either just because we've cut prices. This reduced price tailoring is as thoroughly guaranteed as when our prices are normal.

PERFECT PURITY

in ice can not be absolutely possible where the ice contains dirt, dead leaves, small twigs and other foreign matter—but you've often seen things in natural ice.

HYGIENIC ICE

is frozen from filtered and distilled water, therefore the water is absolutely pure before the freezing process commences. That is why HYGIENIC ICE itself is pure and wholesome and why so many people insist upon having it.
